

Topic	How did Britain change from Stone Age to Iron Age?	Why was the Battle of Britain significant in WW2?	Who were the Windrush generation?
Linked Books
Prior learning	Chronology Understanding that all periods studied to this point have not been pre-history Knowledge that the Egyptian civilisations started during the Stone Age in Britain. Monarchy and Power Understanding of formation of kingdoms such as the Anglo-Saxons Invention and Innovation Knowledge of how other topics studied are linked to the outside world through trade. How other peoples studied used rivers to trade and create settlements. Empire and Civilisation	Chronology Understanding that periods overlap, changes before the 20th Century. Understanding that on a timeline, different parts of the world have different experiences Understanding that Britain was invaded at different times during its history. Knowledge of why people emigrated in other periods studied. Monarchy and Power Knowledge of democracy and knowing that Britain does not have a dictator. Understanding that successful invasions from other topics studied changed the course of British history. Invention and Innovation	Chronology Understanding that periods overlap, changes before the 20th Century. Understanding that Britain was invaded Knowledge of why people emigrated in other periods of history. Monarchy and Power Knowledge of Britain at the end of World War 2 and the need for a new workforce. Where the British Empire's influence stretched to. Invention and Innovation Britain's contribution to invention and innovation and links to the outside world. Empire and Civilisation

Year 6 - History Overview

	Knowledge of established tribes, kingdoms and empires studied in Britain that the Stoneage preceded	The importance of innovations such as the steam engine and railways Empire and Civilisation Understanding that there are different forms of rule from monarch, parliament to empire.	The role of Commonwealth countries during WW2
Historical concept	Similarity and difference	Historical significance	Historical significance
Substantive Knowledge	Chronology Understand that Stone Age is pre-history. Understand that the Stone Age lasted over millions of years and can be split into 3 definitive periods (Paleolithic, Mesolithic and Neolithic) Monarchy and Power Understand that during the Iron Age Britain had a number of separate tribes that had their own social structures. Invention and Innovation Understand how hunter-gatherers evolved into farmers and how diet changed as a result. Understand how the formation of settlements affected the lives of Stone Age people. Understand the importance of StoneHenge and how it may have been built. Understand the role of stone, iron and bronze in technological advancement. Empire and Civilisation Understand what early settlements were like	Chronology Understand that the Second World War lasted over a 6 year period. Understand the difference between the longevity of the war and the battles that fit within its timeline. Monarchy and Power Understand what a dictatorship is and how it differs from monarchy. Understand the role of the monarchy vs government in key decision making Understand the Treaty of Versailles and the chain of events that allowed Hilter to rise to power. Understand the role appeasement played in triggering WW2 Invention and Innovation Understand how Britons adapted to survive the Blitz. Understand that it was necessary for children to be evacuated	Chronology Understand that the arrival of the Windrush was a significant event. Understand that the arrival of the Windrush marked a new wave of emigration from the Caribbean Monarchy and Power Understand what a dictatorship is and how it differs from monarchy. Understand the role of the monarchy vs government in key decision making Understand the Treaty of Versailles and the chain of events that allowed Hilter to rise to power. Understand the role appeasement played in triggering WW2 Invention and Innovation Understand the impact the Windrush generation and their descendants have had on British culture

Year 6 - History Overview

	Understand how sites such as Skara Brae and Stonehenge tell us about the people that lived there. Understand the importance of resources and the development of settlements.	Understand how Britons halted the Germans during the Battle of Britain Empire and Civilisation Understand the changes in the lives of British people as a result of war- rationing, women’s role, Blackouts, Blitz, Home Guard Understand the role propaganda played in morale and how it misled the British public.	Empire and Civilisation Understand that the Caribbean's place within the Empire led to emigration to Britain
Vocabulary	Chronology Pre-history Paleolithic Mesolithic Neolithic	Monarchy and Power Dictator	Empire and Civilisation Commonwealth Generation