The types of SEND that are provided for	The school provides support for students with the following areas of SEND: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Cognition and LearningCommunication and InteractionSocial, Emotional and Mental HealthNeeds Sensory and/or Physical Needs We also provide specialist support within our resource provision for students with Vision Impairments (VI). The Resourced Provision provides up to 14 places from Reception to Y6 for children who are severely vision impaired, and require more specialist support than a mainstream school could reasonably be expected to provide. Pupils accessing a place within the Resourced Provision will have a vision loss classified as either severe or profound and meet the assessment criteria for EHCP children in the Local Authority. The majority of learners accessing the VI Resourced Provision will be tactile learners, who use braille and/or specialist technology as their main method of communication, or they will require modified large print at font 36 or above. Children whose needs or who, for other reasons, would benefit from more targeted support may also be eligible for a place within the Resourced Provision. Pupils who access the provision and its resources will have vision impairment as their primary need and have an EHCP. Some pupils may also attend on an assessment place.

The policies for identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs	We have adopted an inclusive approach to SEND policy and practice. Pupils identified as having SEND are, as far as practicable, fully integrated into mainstream classes. Every effort is made to ensure that they have full access to the National Curriculum and are integrated into all aspects of the school. The SEN code of practice 2014 makes it clear that all teachers of pupils with additional needs receive Quality First Teaching (QFT). Children may require further support and intervention at SEND Support. Children who are still not making progress will require a referral to the High Incidence Team at SEND Support Plus which may lead to a requirement of further funding for additional support, adult intervention or specialist equipment in the form of Education Health Care Assessment (EHCA) leading to a legal document an Educational Health and Care Plan (EHCP). The SEN code of practice 2014 states that this must be completed using the Graduated Approach – Assess, plan, do, review model. The SEND Policy can be found at https://grovehouseprimary.co.uk/policies-and-documents/
The named school SENDCO	Miss N Wade
The arrangements for consulting parents of children with SEND and involving them in their child's education	Parents and carers are kept fully involved in situations around SEND and their children. We operate many systems to engage parents including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> My Support Plan Reviews Education, Health and Care Plan Reviews Parents Evenings Communication Books Telephone Consultations

The arrangements for consulting young people with SEND and involving them in their education	Students are kept fully involved in situations around SEND and their education. This is obviously engaged at an age and ability appropriate level. We operate many systems to engage students including: My Support Plan Reviews Education, Health and Care Plan Reviews 1:1 Activities and Work Individual Conversations
The arrangements for assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes and how parents and young people are involved as part of this assessment and review	The school uses a variety of assessment processes as relevant to different pupils and different year groups We review progress daily in lessons which informs our planning. There are more formal reviews through the My Support Plan (MSP) and or EHCP targets which are reviewed at least termly. Parents and cares are issued with an annual report on their child's progress.
The arrangements for supporting pupils moving between phases of education and preparing for adulthood	We provide extensive support for students at all change points in their education. This includes the progression of both years and phases. There are detailed teacher handovers and SENDCO involvement where appropriate.
The approach to teaching pupils with SEND	We have adopted an inclusive approach to SEND policy and practice. Pupils identified as having SEND are, as far as practicable, fully integrated into mainstream classes. Every effort is made to ensure that they have full access to the National Curriculum and are integrated into all aspects of the school.
The adaptations that are made to the curriculum and the learning environment of pupils with SEND	Our inclusive approach results in any amendments that can be made being implemented to ensure our inclusive approach gives every student as equal an opportunity as possible.

The additional support for learning that is available for pupils with SEND	This is vast and individualised to the student, but can include things such as: Short Term Intervention Programmes Long Term Intervention Programmes 1:1 Support Shared Support Specialist Equipment
The expertise and training of staff to support pupils with SEND, including how specialist expertise will be secured	We have an extensive programme to ensure all our staff receive detailed and expert training in the area of SEND. This is not only delivered by our school and Multi Academy Trust (MAT) staff but also with the support and expertise from our SEND Consultant and other external professionals.
The securing of equipment and facilities to support children and young people with SEND	The school works in partnership with other agencies to ensure that appropriate equipment is available to support our students.
The evaluation of the effectiveness of the provision made for pupils with SEND	The school and designated SENDCO have strong systems established to regularly (at least three times per year) review provision and effectiveness through the MSP reviews. The school and MAT also have a rigorous programme of self-review and external review to ensure the effectiveness of all our systems.
The way pupils with SEND are enabled to engage in activities available with those in the school who do not have SEND	The inclusive approach to our student's education means that all students take part in all parts of school life that are available to them. If adaptations need to be made to allow for this full inclusive approach, then this will be arranged.

The support for improving emotional and social development, including extra pastoral support arrangements for listening to the views of pupils with SEND and measures to prevent bullying	There are strong support systems in place across school to ensure the wellbeing of all students. There is also a large team of staff to support students growth and development and who ensure that pupils with SEND are able to express any view or concerns.
The school involves other bodies, including health and social care bodies, local authority (LA) support services and voluntary sector organisations, in meeting pupils' SEND and supporting their families	The school and MAT have developed excellent links with external agencies and organisations.
